

Press Release

Edition 2010

September 10 - 13

MARA MORIN DRESSES UP THE MOST ANCIENT TOWN HALL of FRANCE FOR AN EXHIBITION

In partnership with numerous institutions (the French government, the Pays-Haut-Entre-Deux-Mers, the local business owners association...) and the different international industrials as Linum, Dedar, Pierre Frey etc... ATMOSPHERES invites you to experience the sensorial wonderment.

10th to the 13th of September 2010

In the sumptuous ancient Town Hall, constructed under Richard the Lion King goodwill, will occur an unique event in France. This building located at the heart of a medieval town (La Réole), will host qualitative and international artists, industrials, artisans to enhance the local and international know-how. You will discover a 400m² loft and a sensorial garden.

Artistically directed and conceived by the talented and sparkling Brazilian, Mara Morin, Atmospheres offer you a vision of creativity in a collaborative concept.

First Rio, then Roma and Paris... This exalting woman, passionate with fabrics, materials and colours imposes her elegance to the French capital. She decides to operate her magic in our splendid region in the South-West of France to give a new life to our interiors.

Years of experience and professionalism contributed to the achievement of ATMOSPHERES. Her sense of taste pushed her to dress-up the most ancient Town Hall of France to offer us a modern and intuitive perception.

Press Info :

M Jérôme FOUCAUD

foucaudj@gmail.com

Tel : +33 6 77 98 34 49

www.atmospheres-lareole.com